Who should complete this application form

You must use this form to apply for a Junket Operator licence if you intend to provide junket operator services for the ICR.

General Information

This guidance has been written to help you complete the junket operator licence application form. Please read this document carefully before you attempt to answer any questions.

Please note that those individuals listed in question 9 of the application form and those holding 10% or greater of the equity of the applicant (question 16) will also need to complete Annex A to the application form unless they are a junket representative. Junket representatives will need to complete the junket representative licence application form.

You will be required to provide supporting documentation/evidence with your application and/or to provide certified copies if applicable.

If any of the information contained within the application changes during the period between submitting the application and the application being determined, you must notify the Commission immediately by telephone or e-mail.

The application will not be considered unless all relevant questions have been completed and the application fee has been paid in full. Where required, an Investigation fee must also be paid at the time of the application.

Failure to provide all relevant information, documentation or assurances or to provide further information when requested by the Commission may result in the application being determined based on the information available at the time which may affect the outcome of the application, including whether a licence can be granted.

Failure to provide any material fact or supply of information which is untrue or misleading will result in the refusal of the application.

Should the applicant be granted a licence and the Commission later discovers that the applicant has submitted or provided false or misleading information to obtain the licence, the licence may be revoked, or other penalties imposed.

What the Commission expects from applicants for licences

- Be able to demonstrate that they can meet the Commission's suitability assessment.
- Ensure that the activities they plan to carry out will be conducted in a manner which minimises the risks to the licensing objectives.
- Work with the Commission in an open and co-operative way.
- Disclose to the Commission anything which the Commission would reasonably expect to know.

How is your application assessed

The Commission needs to be satisfied that licensees are suitable to hold a licence and undertake the activities for which they are licensed. In assessing suitability, the Commission will look at the suitability of the applicant and those persons relevant to the application. Relevant persons include, officers of the company, senior management, shareholders, associates and any other person connected with the applicant or who may influence or benefit from the activities or services provided under the licence. The Commission will take a number of factors into consideration whilst processing your application and determining suitability including:

- Identity and ownership – the identity of the applicant and any person(s) relevant to the application will be established and verified using appropriate official documentation. The ownership of a corporate applicant will be investigated, and all major shareholders identified. The Commission will check company and director records to ensure that the correct entity is being licensed and check any related companies or directors. The Commission will also wish to establish who benefits from the gambling services and facilities provided. We therefore require that any shareholder with a 3% or more share is listed within the application and those with over a 10% share may be subject to further checks. If the beneficiary of any business is a Trust, we will require details of the beneficiaries of that Trust. If the applicant is a company based overseas, or part of the company structure is based overseas, we require a full description of the company structure, and may carry out checks with overseas regulators.
- Integrity – the reputation, honesty and trustworthiness of the applicant and/or person(s) relevant to the applicant and/or associated companies. The Commission will consider whether the information it collects raises any concerns about integrity. This includes an assessment of an applicant's criminal record, and any past involvement in civil or regulatory investigations or proceedings. We will also consider the manner by which the applicant has conducted their business with specific regard to the provision of gambling services in other jurisdictions. In addition, the Commission will also consider the evidence and findings of any complaints about the applicant and/or investigations by other regulators, and we will investigate any history of business failure.

- Finances – the financial condition, stability and strength of the applicant as well as its financial resources and the integrity of any source of funds. The past and present financial circumstances of the applicant and any person(s) relevant to the application will be investigated to ensure that sufficient resources are in place to carry out the licensed activities. Additionally, the Commission will ask for accounts from existing businesses and associated companies. Our focus is on assessing the source of funding and the resources likely to be available to enable a licensee to carry on the licensed activities.
- Competence – whether the applicant has the technical capability to provide junket operator services. This includes the applicant’s track record of compliance with the legal and regulatory requirements of any jurisdiction where it may hold a junket operator licence/permit or approval. The Commission may also take up references and may review the CVs of relevant persons to assess their work experience and the training they have received which demonstrates their competence to carry out the role required of them.
- Criminality – Criminal record of the applicant and/or person(s) relevant to the application. Any prior offences committed by the applicant and any person(s) relevant to the application will be taken into account when assessing an application for a junket operator licence. Any previous offences do not mean that the application will automatically be refused. Each case will be considered on its individual merits, and consideration will be given to the seriousness, relevance and date of the conviction. In evaluating the seriousness and relevance of an offence, the Commission’s assessment will focus on whether the conviction has a potential bearing on suitability to hold a licence and will have regard to safeguarding the licensing objectives and the public interest.

In assessing suitability, the Commission will use both the information and supporting documentation provided by the applicant as part of the application and information available from other sources (e.g. open source, government departments, overseas regulators). The Commission shall carry out the investigations and enquiries it considers necessary to enable it to consider the application properly and in particular, the Commission may:

- (a) Carry out an investigation of the applicant in relation to the person’s suitability to be a junket operator;
- (b) Carry out an investigation of any person who may be an associate or who has a business association with the applicant or any other person who is connected with the ownership, administration or management of the operations or the business of the applicant;
- (c) Require the applicant or any person, referred to in (b), to provide such information and produce such records relevant to the investigation of the application;
- (d) Require the applicant or any person, referred to in (b) to consent to having his photograph, and with the collaboration of the police, fingerprints and palm prints taken; and
- (e) Send a copy of the application and any such photograph, fingerprints and palm prints taken to the police, who shall enquire into and report to the Commission on such matters as the Commission requests.

For every application, the Commission may:

- Grant a licence;
- Grant a licence subject to conditions required by the Commission; or
- Refuse a licence where there are reasons to do so.

What the Commission expects from licensees:

The Commission expects licensees to conduct their activities in a way that does not put the licensing objectives at risk. It expects those holding a junket operator licence to:

- Conduct their business with integrity;
- Act with due care, skill and diligence;
- Maintain adequate financial resources;
- Work with the Commission in an open and co-operative way;
- Disclose to the Commission at any time anything which it would reasonably be expected to know;

- Provide to the Commission such information or records as the Commission considers necessary from time to time;
- Ensure that the junket operator and the services provided are in compliance with the Law, the Regulations and conditions imposed by the Commission in the junket operator licence, including but not limited to compliance with Commission AML requirements.
